

Edwardian Upstairs/Downstairs Party

The residents of 6 Felinfoel Road; 6a Felinfoel Road; 1, 3 & 5 Surveyor's Court; announce a grand street party, to be held at 8.00 p.m., on Saturday, 15th February, 1986.

Due to an anticipated inclemency in weather, said party will be held within the above mentioned properties.

A spokesman for the Residents' Association has intimated that a number of royal personages, including — Dukes; Duchesses; Knights of the Garter; Lords of the Realm and their Ladies; and various pillars of society will be present. Accordingly, the retinues of such households, will naturally be in attendance in equal numbers.

In deference to the cosmopolitan nature of the invitation, to both above and below stairs, you are invited to attend via the main house: 'Old Surveyors', 6 Felinfoel Road, Llanelli, Dyfed, dressed in such relevant attire which closest fits your personal station in life.

A friendly reception will be further guaranteed to those guests who present themselves together with a suitable receptacle containing such alcoholic beverages as is meet for such varied classes to imbibe.

* * * * *

EQUIVOCAL.—“A—got anything on to-night, Lady Godiva?”
—“Not much, I'm glad to say!”
23.—BY DU MAURIER, 1893.

“DON'T PRESS ME,” SHE SAID.”